

MICROSOLV HPLC Qualification Kits Say Chemical Solutions on the Label - Tech Information

Date: 7-APRIL-2012 Update: 28-JUNE-2025

About the “Chemical Solutions™ Brand” Label on PQ and HSQ Kits

You may notice that your PQ and HSQ Qualification Kits are labeled with the brand name Chemical Solutions™. Here’s what that means:

Chemical Solutions™ is the official brand name for these qualification kits and solutions, which are now manufactured and certified by MICROSOLV Technology Corporation, Leland, NC.

A Legacy of Quality and Collaboration

For over 25 years, these products were developed through a joint venture between MICROSOLV and Chemical Solutions, Inc.. As of January 2024, MICROSOLV has fully taken over the production and certification of these products.

While the manufacturing has transitioned, the brand name “Chemical Solutions™” remains unchanged to ensure continuity and recognition for our customers.

Ongoing Support & Expertise

Product support and continued development are provided by:

- MICROSOLV’s technical, QC and manufacturing teams
- Dr. Richard Hartwick, formerly of Chemical Solutions, Inc., who continues to contribute his expertise
